

Book Review

by David T. Little

The Secrets, Chastisement, and Triumph of the Two Hearts of Jesus and Mary

Kelly Bowring (Imprimatur from Ricardo Cardinal Vidal) - Two Hearts Press, LLC 286 pages

Dr. Kelly Bowring has written a book much needed to be read by every Catholic, priest, prelate or laity. For concerned Catholics troubled over what is going on in the Church and world, it is a real page-turner.

Because of grievous sin over a long time, murder of the innocent and lust run amok particularly, our Church is deeply wounded, and in our lifetime is entering into the very Passion of the Bridegroom. The prince of this world, subtle, wily has deceived many to believe the most egregious lies, and we have become a world of barbarians, murderous self-deceived pagans. Never in human history have things been worse. To quote Our Lady, "...worse than at the time of the flood." (Chapter 1, pg. 81)

This book contains clear, concise connectivity to Scripture, Saint's prophecies and Private Revelation. It *demand*s our attention with knowledge essential to anyone who truly wishes to know the great peril already at our doorstep. "My people perish for lack of knowledge.' (Hos 4:6)

There is no idle speculation in this book's well researched study of private revelation. Only such sources that are approved or have current positive support from a Pope or a Bishop of the Church are included. Dr. Bowring has a Pontifical Doctorate in Theology from the Angelicum in Rome among other degrees. Yet he succeeds magnificently in weaving a non-academic tapestry, highly readable, filled with insight and plain common sense. I have been studying Scripture, the Saints and their prophecies and private revelation for decades. But in this book, for the first time, I have found a complete compendium of how they are all related and connected to one another in a precise fashion with no speculation. The book is no less than superb in this relational comprehension.

We know that never before in history has Our Lady been called by God to appear so often to her children all over the world. Lourdes, La Salette, Fatima, Garabandal, Amsterdam, North and South America, Africa, Japan and Medjugorje and more testify to her great love for her children, calling, inviting and warning what is about to befall all of humanity. Through it all the Blessed Virgin seeks to bring us to eternal joy through the Two Hearts of Jesus and Mary. She pleads with us to repent, pray, fast and make reparation for our conversion and that of all poor sinners.

Dr. Bowring makes it clear how and why the Church will define as Dogma, that Mary, the humble handmaid of the Lord is Co-Redemptrix, Mediatrix of All Grace and our Advocate in Heaven. (Chapter 3, pgs. 131-140) This dogmatic promulgation will signal the beginning of the triumph of Jesus and His Bride, the Catholic Church throughout the entire world when all will be one, under one religion, one Church, one holy Pope.

I keep a few books near me all the time, especially on my night table. This is a new one. It is the factual compendium we need now on why our time has been chosen for the Blessed Virgin to come to speak to her children so often.

The devil has declared all out war. He knows his time is short. The signs are clear. The smoke of hell in the Church, the abortion and contraception holocaust, sexual depravity, loss of faith, unheard of attacks on true marriage, the real family, not to mention the economic meltdown, increasing natural disasters, valid fears of pandemic diseases and environmental disaster, terrorism and religious wars. All signs pointing to Satan. This book brings the response from heaven, from Mary, our Mother. We will listen and do as she asks and reach eternal love and life, or we will not and end in eternal hate and death.

This book connects all the dots. It is a consolation of this time of mercy. But that time is quickly running out. What can we do? This book answers. It is a must read.